Coach's Code of Conduct

- Soccer is a game for happiness.
- The laws of soccer should be regarded as mutual agreements, the spirit of which should be respected and unbroken.
- Visiting teams and spectators are honored guests.
- No advantages except those of superior skill should be sought.
- Officials and opponents should be treated and regarded as honest.
- Accept official decisions without anger no matter how unfair they may seem.
- Winning is desirable, but winning at any cost defeats the purpose of the game.
- Losing can be a triumph when the team has given its best.
- In soccer, as in life, treat others, as you would have them treat you.
